Members of Joseph E. Johnston Camp Mct Last Night in Social Session.

POLICE ARE ON THE LOOKOUT

Committees to Hold Meetings. Mr. R. A. Bowen to Retire. Birthday Celebrated.

Manchester Bureau Times-Dispatch, | No. 1102 Hull Street, |

The Confederate war veterans of Manchester, members of the Joseph E. John-ston Camp, gathered in social session in Jerdan's Hall last night, and spent a thoroughly enjoyable evening. About for ty were present. Colonel Arthur Evans made a short talk, and the Rev. Mr Cridlin, chaplain of the camp, also spoke. A delightful phonograph goncert was conducted by Mr. J. W. Sparrow, after which supper was served by Mr. O. F. Roy. The occasion was in all respects a most pleasant one. The supper and

Roy. The occasion was in an respected a most pleasant one. The supper and concert will be repeated next Thursday night at the same place.

On the second Sunday of the month the camp will assemble in the hall and go in a body to the Stockton Street Baptist. Church, where they will hear a special sermon by the Rev. Mr. Cridlin.

ON THE LOOKOUT.

The vigilant police of Manchester are on a constant watch for the midnight proviers, who are playing havee in some sections of the State with banks and big stores. The wholesale robberies everywhere and particularly the recent disturbances of this character in Richmond, have stirred the police up considerably, and have caused them to redouble their efforts to prevent any such occurrences in Manchester. Captain Lipscomb said of the bank robbers. Up to this time, however, there was nothing of this sort read the town was very quiet. A sharp lookout is being steadily kept.

STREET COMMITTIEE

The Street Committee met last night, and transacted its usual business. Bills were approved and the reports from the city engineer were received and accepted. Permission was granted to the Bell Telephone Company to erect certain poles long its route.

along its route.

The Cemetery Committee and the Health Committee both met and translacted routine business.

Health Committee outs below the lacted routine business.
